

SNOW-MELT SYSTEMS:

Snow-melt systems consist of hoses beneath the hardscape that run a mixture of hot water and anti-freeze that provides enough heat to melt any snow on the surface, eliminating the need for snow-removal.

There are a wide variety of surfaces including concrete and pavers.

The gaps between pavers such as cobblestone provide a porous surface for drainage and decreased runoff.

Images by:

www.bylius.com

www.delta-therm.com

